ADMISSION POLICY

1. Registration is compulsory for entry.
2. ExpoCulinaire is strictly for Trade and Business Professionals related to the industry only.
3. General public and persons under the age of 21 will not be permitted entry (Culinary students over the age of 16 are permitted together with their course director).
4. The organisers of ExpoCulinaire strive to ensure that only qualified Trade and Business Professionals attend the exhibition to deliver a productive business environment for both visitors and exhibitors. They reserve the right to request further proof of eligibility prior to badge issue and also to refuse entry if necessary.
5. Badges are non transferable and visitors found to be facilitating this will not be eligible for entry into ExpoCulinaire or future exhibitions.
6. If you do not receive your visitor confirmation in your e-mail, please check your Junk folder
7. Trolley / luggage bags are strictly not permitted within the exhibition halls.
8. Wearing of masks is mandatory.
9. Badge holders must not allow their badges to be worn by anyone else. Anyone obtaining visitor or exhibitor badges by theft, deception or other illegal means may be asked to leave the event.
10. Anyone attending the exhibition should carry some form of photo ID (passport, photo-ID driving license, national identity card) or other identification acceptable to the Organiser, which the Organiser may ask to see.
11. Anyone attending the exhibition must not take part in any canvassing, leafleting, demonstrations, objectionable behavior or any activity which may disrupt the exhibition or conference.
